

No One Wants To Think About It

We make sure our children are in car seats and seat belts. We walk them across busy streets. We ask our teens where they are going and who they will be with. All to keep them safe. And yet, when it comes to the crime of child sexual abuse, shame, fear, and denial keeps adults—and communities—silent.

Safe Communities, Safe Children

CERRO COSO COLLEGE, MAMMOTH CAMPUS

You are invited to a Town Hall Forum to discuss child sexual abuse. This difficult and taboo issue has profound effects on families, children and the community. And the awful truth is that it is more common than we want to believe—yes, even here in our Eastern Sierra communities.

The good news is that talking about it helps prevent it. Through awareness and education, we, as parents and as a community, can be empowered to recognize, prevent and react responsibly to childhood sexual abuse.

■ Learn about it. Talk about it. Think about it. ■

Join us Friday, April 13, 6-9pm at Cerro Coso College in Mammoth.
